

191. 3413862. 19TH CENTURY CHINESE SCHOOL. Portrait of Taniku.

 Hammer auction

Highest bid:

36 EUR

Estimate: 1 600 EUR

Hammering:

Wed Oct 23

Catalogue number 191 in Subasta de octubre 2024

Pre-bidding closes: Wed 23 Oct at 16:00 CEST

41

EUR

Place bid

Minimum bid: 41 EUR. Or enter your own, higher max bid.

You have been outbid.

Place a higher bid to be able to win.

Bid history

The reserve price has not been met.

2		19 Oct, 04:59	36 EUR
1	You	15 Oct, 16:13	30 EUR

Description

Ink and watercolor on silk, glued to four silk bands

It represents Taniku, a second-ranking officer in the Imperial Guard. According to models from the Qianlong period attributed to Ai Qimeng and Jin Tingbiao, who made fifty portraits of the imperial guards commissioned by the Emperor.

124.5x75.5 cm (without bands).

Condition

Small spots. It has not been examined outside the framework. Frame in silver and gold wood.

Resale right

No, paid by seller

Payment options for this item

  Bank transfer

